Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, after years of ill health and mental failing, breathed her last yesterday evening at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Ed wards, in Springfield, Ill.

If the Avalanche still insists that the governor has any veto power in the common meaning and use of the term, we cannot help it; we wash our hands of all responsibility for the consequences. When a governor has the fact staring him in the face that 33 members in the House and 18 in the Senate can pass a bill after he has returned it without his approval, he is not likely to rely much upon a veto power which is overcome by a single vote in either House. The Avalanche was correct at first in accepting the LEDGER's statement of a fact, and as long as it will keep in the same line it will be happy, good and great.

The Democratic mass meeting on the bluff, Saturday night, was all that could have been expected or desired. It was a gathering of several hundred quiet, earnest citizens, who were more than ever impressed by the eloquent speeches of the occasion, with the importance of electing the entire county Democratic ticket on the third of August. The ticket is an excellent one throughout, and its merits were ably set forth Saturday night. Notwithstanding this is a very quiet canvass, a full vote is likely to be polled. The single fact that all the districts elect Magistrates, should be sufficient to awaken a general interest, as those elected are to serve six years, and constitute the County Court. That the ticket will be elected from top to bottom seems very probable. Yet it will require a united effort and something more than mass meetings and the endorsement of the press. The county convention presented a splendid ticket, thoroughly representative and cosmopolitan, like our population. If the Democrats and liberal independent elements co-operating with them would maintain their prestige and influence, they must put their shoulders to the wheel and elect the ticket entire, as they can easily do, and as we confidently believe they will. The meeting Saturday night was a good send off.

Sir Knights of Tennessee.

At a banquet of the Knights Templar at St. Paul on the 11th, a toast was proposed to the "Sir Knights of Tennessee," which was responded to by Maj. G. C. Connor, of Chattanooga. We had the following report of it in the St. Paul Globe: "The Sir Knights of Tennessee" was then given, and Sir Knight Connor was called to respond. Sir Knight Connor commenced by returning his hearty thanks for the compliment paid his State in the toast. He was heartily delighted at the privilege he had enjoyed of meeting this valiant body of Sir Knights and beautiful women on this joyous occasion. It had warmed his heart to its very core. He well remembered what a thrill of pride and exultation when, after climbing the Alps years ago, his ears were greeted with Yankee Doodle breathed out upon a flagpole. It carried him back like a flash to his home, free America. So had the familiar words of "Gwine Back to Dixie," to night, carried him back to his own home at the foot of Lookout Mountain, where but a few years ago you of the north fought so valiantly for the protection of the Union which I and others, to our sorrow now, were trying so desperately to dismember. That bloody scene was a thing of the past, and now once more we are one people, with one country, one flag, one God, in which sentiment, as people of the south joined as fervently as did the people of the north. Mr. Connor's remarks were made with great earnestness, and interspersed with many happy bits, as well as patriotic sentiments, eliciting frequent and tumultuous applause.

Nashville Banner.

The financial statement of the Supreme Recorder for June shows $161,199 received on account of beneficiary fund, and $158,000 paid out to widows and orphans. In Tennessee $90,000 were paid out during the same time, $40,000 of which were received here in Nashville by the heirs of J. B. Clemons and Robert Patton. The total membership is 108,951, 2000 members being under the new Grand Lodge of Iowa, organized four weeks ago. The State beneficiary fund is the means of dividing up the beneficiary fund, so that no large amount may accumulate in any one man's hands. It is also the means of each State taking care of its own losses up to the maximum annual rate. In the event of an excessive death rate in any one locality the entire order is assessed. The medical examinations are very strict; the work of each local examiner is supervised and passed upon by the State examiners. This feature is a very important safeguard. All officers who handle money are required, under the laws, to have all books and papers thoroughly examined on the first of each month by the Grand Lodge Finance Committee, and these monthly examinations are so thorough and systematic that it is a matter of impossibility for a single error to occur without being detected. A monthly financial statement is sent out every thirty days to all lodges in order that they may see they have received proper credit for remittances,

Fifteen Thousand Arabs Throwing Up Earthworks.

Six Thousand British Troops in Alexandria.

LONDON, July 17.—A dispatch from Calcutta reports the loss of the mail steamer which sailed with 1500 commissariat tents and a large quantity of stores on board for Suez.

The entry of the Hissidales for the Kingston Rowing Club's amateur regatta last Saturday, was refused.

ALBANY, July 17.—A battalion of Munster fusiliers have been ordered to sail for Malta to-day.

PARIS, July 17.—The Cabinet in council resolved to accept the invitation to protect the Suez Canal jointly with England.

MARSEILLES, July 17.—Six French transports have been ordered to get ready to embark with troops.

ALEXANDRIA, July 17.—The Northumberland, with 700 men, the Tamar, with 91 marines and the Salamis and Agincourt arrived here. The marines will land at Gabari, add two regiments at Ramleh.

Admiral Seymour has issued a manifesto, announcing he has undertaken, with the consent of the Egyptian government, to restore order. Nobody is allowed to leave town after dark.

During the massacre soldiers set fire to the house of a timber merchant. A maid servant escaped to the garden, where she remained surrounded by fire, the soldiers laughing at her agony, and firing at her, but purposely avoiding the infliction of fatal injury preferring to see her burn to death. She rushed through the flames, and, she succeeded in securing refuge in the ruins, where she was discovered by the marines and handed over to the Americans.

During the alarm Saturday night 150 Bedouins at Gabarri gates fled before the attack of the midshipmen. General Stone rode Sunday afternoon six miles in the direction of Arabi Pasha's camp but saw nothing of his army. The Khedive has received news that a large number of Bedouins have collected three miles from the railway gate, which is opposite the weak point in our defenses.

PORT SAID, July 16.—There is an immense number of refugees here. Many women and children are expected to-day.

The Europeans are imperfectly armed with revolvers and sporting guns. They fear they will be attacked by a large force of Bedouins, who, it is stated, are assembling in the desert. There are also 15,000 Arabs at Fort Guelmi, six miles hence, throwing up earthworks. Three British, four French, two Italian and one Spanish men-of-war are in the harbor. The Governor is loyal to the Khedive, but the Egyptian Colonel who commands 250 men here is suspected.

ALEXANDRIA, July 17.—Lieutenant Jackson, who was wounded in an attack on the forts, is dead. Toula Pasha, the military commander of Alexandria is stated to have been personally engaged in locating the harm.

Austria's Consul is the only foreign diplomat who thought it necessary to quit Alexandria. He has gone to Port Said.

Dervish Pasha states that he has fifteen telegrams to Constantinople for troops, and all remain unanswered. The Egyptian Gazette was published to-day.

Several fresh fires occurred last night. The troops from the troopship Tamerlane are disembarking, and will raise the total British force ashore to 6000 men. The war steamer Heli-con has intercepted two regiments going to Port Said from Cyprus, and ordered them to Alexandria. Four sailors and two of the Khedive's body guards rode to Kafu Midwar last evening, and reconnoitered Arabi Pasha's outposts.

SIMLA, July 17.—The immediate of troops going to Egypt has been ordered, and all officers absent on furloughs are ordered to rejoin their commands.

SCANDAL IN COLORED CIRCLES.

Negro Preacher Killed and Probably a White Man.

CHICAGO, July 17.—A special from Musick's Ferry, near St. Louis, reports that the negroes of that section are scandalized because Henry Francis, a German laborer, was living with an unmarried negress, and essayed to regulate matters. Francis, seeing a crowd of angry colored men about the house about midnight, shoved his musket through the window and fired. A preacher was killed and George Merris is reported to be fatally wounded. Francis has not been seen since, and it is reported that the crowd took him at daylight and drowned him in the Missouri river.

Favorable Crop Reports.

CHICAGO, July 17.—An extended survey of the corn outlook in Southern Illinois shows that section has fared much better than the Northern and Central portions. The prospect is very good and there will be an average yield, with a little rain during next month. Corn is rapidly improving farther north, and the situation is far from being as gloomy as two weeks ago.

In Southern Indiana the crop is doing excellently, and in Southern Indiana and Illinois there are large crops of wheat and oats.

In Minnesota the prospect for wheat is very favorable and improving. Corn is a little backward there.

A special from Atchison, Kansas, says that the wheat harvest has closed, with a most satisfactory yield over the entire State. The average is twenty-five bushels per acre—much heavier than the estimates of the Board of Agriculture. The quality is the best possible, and farmers are rushing it in to get high prices. Corn looks fine. It is shouder high, and if nothing unforeseen comes the yield will be 175,000,000 bushels.

A Lesson for Boys Who Use Pistols for Toys.

CINCINNATI, July 17.—There have been six deaths from lackjaw in this city and Covington within the past two days. The victims are all boys and were wounded in the hand by pistols on the Fourth of July. In most cases the wounds were apparently trifling.

Killed by an Officer.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 17.—Officer Schneider, in attempting to break up a disturbance by a party of roughs yesterday, was assaulted by them, whereupon he fired and shot one of them, named Ives, inflicting a fatal wound.

POLICE POINTS.

J. N. Weaver had a slug of melted gold in his pocket which he wanted to give the court to let him go. He was allowed to pocket his nugget and leave.

A fine of $150 was imposed on Smith Colyer for meddling with the sewers.

Sixty-one dollars in cash was realized to-day from fourteen cases, the smallest Monday morning docket of the season.

Joe Jopora touched paint and was defiled or in other words, he banged a painter and was fined five dollars.

Officer Condon overheard George Foster and Jim Welsh make an engagement to go to the suburbs and have it out. He intended to let them roach the corporation line and were nabbed. Ten dollars each.

There is great joy in Belleville, Ontario, over the exposure of Dr. Slade, the notorious spiritualist and medium, who in the presence of a dozen gentlemen, including the Chief of Police, acknowledged last Friday morning that he was a fraud and that his "manifestations" were mere trickery. His slate writing had provoked much wonder among the people in attendance upon his daily seances, and a plan was formed for detecting him. Upon being charged with cheating and threatened with arrest the medium fell upon his knees, "trembling like an aspen," and begged to be let off. The Chief of Police finally relented sufficiently to give him three minutes in which to get to the railroad station, and by the first train he went East. The general rejoicing at this complete detection, however, is somewhat tempered by a doubt whether the exposed spiritualist is the genuine Slade. A commercial traveler who was in Belleville at the time of the exposure offers to bet $100 to $5 that the ruined medium is a double fraud, and that the unadulterated Dr. Slade is at the present moment at Port Huron, Michigan.

HOCH SOLL' SIE LIBEN.

The Abandoning With Which the Hong-Tong Take to the Flowing Bowl.

The Cincinnati Gazette is authority for the statement that hong-tong ladies of that ancient city are becoming more and more addicted to the flowing bowl, and that they take to lager beer with an abandon which is simply immense, the result being a series of family picnics of a character not found elsewhere. The disastrous effects of this growing evil are beginning to be manifested at the police courts, where it is no longer a rare sight to see among the prisoners each morning a number of fine ladies who have never been there before. It is unfortunate for the "ladies" that they do not seem to be constituted to tackle beer without the effects of the deadly book flying to their dear little heads. Why, if the Gazette is to be believed, two or three glasses, not to say schooners, which would be too vulgar, you know—will make the wife of a millionaire so altogether breezy, so altitudinous, as it were, that nothing will satisfy the cravings of her soul till she goes out to the middle fence and proclaims war against her next door neighbor, who, provided she has accumulated a like supply of war material, is only too glad to welcome her with bloody hands to a hospitable grave or two. And here is where the trouble begins. Instead of acting the gentlemen, and sassing each other and calling it even, they fly all to pieces, and incontinently begin to darken the air with skillets, pans and bric a brac generally, till the sweet peace of the whole ward is turned into a veritable Doonnybrook fair. Woman at her best estate is but a poor worm of the earth when it comes to using the sling or hurling the discus, and when her gentle spirit is animated by the nectar of Gambrinus she becomes an engine of destruction more terrible than an army with banners. In trying to lasso an enemy in the back yard with an ancient pistol, she is liable to telescope the prairie of her church as he enters the front gate. So it goes. No wonder temperance men are crying prohibition, and no wonder women are demanding the ballot. We are living in a grand and awful age.

Garfield's Doctor Bill.

Washington Special to Courier-Journal. The House spent a greater part of the day on the Senate amendments to the deficiency bill, and mostly on the Conference Committee. The sticking point was the Garfield doctor bill, which was put on as an amendment to the time Vest made his speech showing up the doctors. The amendment was made the subject of a three hours' discussion and a red hot speech by Mr. Blackburn, who was opposed to it, first, because he thought the Senate should not have added the amendment, since it was a matter wholly in the hands of the House Committee, and also because he did not believe in this way of paying the expenses. He raked the doctors over the coals for crowding into the case against the wishes of the patient and the entire family, and by their lack of knowledge and bungling, butchering the President, and then bringing in excessive bills. Mr. Taylor, who represents the old Garfield district, made a poor hand at defending the appropriation, which as it came from the Senate was $45,000, and when asked by Mr. Bragg about a bill from the Governor of Ohio for the expenses of the Ohio State militia at the funeral he denied that there ever was such a bill, and wriggled around precisely as a boy does when lying out of a bad scrape. There were other absurdities besides the one of $25,000 for Bliss, and various motions to amend the amendment by increasing it to various sums, one being $100,000. The Republicans tried to be super-sentimental over the whole matter, and McCook, of New York, was on the point of paying $200,000 out of his own pocket rather than have the discussion go on, but some one restrained him. The point was made by McMillan, of Tennessee, that the doctors have never presented a bill, and so there need be no haste on their account, and Mr. Knott made the sensible suggestion, along with an amendment to the same effect, that the proper thing was to have a Board of Audit, consisting of the First and Second Controllers of the Treasury and the Treasurer, appointed to find out the amount necessary and report back to Congress, but this was voted down and the House non-concurred.

Mr. Hubbell's Compliments to General Grant.

New York Herald. Mr. Jay Abel Hubbell, the present director-in-chief of the management of the National Republican party, flatly asserts over his official signature as "Chairman of the Republican Committee," that anybody who "cripples" the political assessment operation of that committee is an "ally of the Southern bulldozers." This is a pretty strong expression. There are a great many old Union soldiers who condemn the political assessment system, root and branch. Some of them have done, and others are still doing, their "level best" to cripple it. At the head of the former stands General Ulysses S. Grant, who, on the 16th of April, 1872, signed an executive order which was officially promulgated the next day, and never has been revoked, containing the following words, which we commend to the particular attention of Mr. Jay Hubbell and his committee: "Political assessments, as they are called, have been forbidden within the various departments" of the Federal Government. Isn't it audaciously impudent for Mr. Jay Hubbell to be denouncing as "allies of the Southern bulldozers" General Grant and those other brave soldiers who were fighting for the Union on a hundred bloody battle fields in the bitter days when he was keeping himself safe and snug at home up near the top of Michigan, a thousand miles out of harm's way, "making his pile" in mining stock speculations? Are there any deeper depths of shame possible than those into which Mr. Jay Hubbell and his committee are plunging the management of the Republican party? They sank it low, indeed, when they abased it to assessing female hospital nurses for the Republican campaign funds. But they crowd it down lower yet when they denounce as "allies of the Southern bulldozers" honest and patriotic citizens who regard their proceedings with a wholesome contempt. Is there nobody left in the Republican party capable of taking the direction of its practical politics out of Mr. Jay Hubbell's custody? If not, how soon will it touch bottom?

The Hon. R. A. Horr, of the Ohio State Senate, and Republican candidate for Congress in the Fourteenth district of that State, is a twin brother of the witty Congressman Horr of Michigan.
